Her Nerves Were So Bad

Thought She Would Go Out of Her Mind.

Mrs. H. H. Knox, 45 Harding St., St. John, N.B., writes: "I suffered greatly with my nerves. I could not sleep at night, nor work, and the least little thing worked on my mind and bothered me. Last winter I thought I would go out of my mind. I would scream out, and my mother really thought I was going crazy with my nerves. It was so terrible I would hold my head and cry. I tried two doctors but they did not do me any good. I thought I would tell you that today I am perfectly cured by using three boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and I can recommend them to all sufferers from nervous troubles so you can tell everyone that they are the only thing that did me any good."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50¢ per box or 3 boxes for $1.25, at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

A BARREL OF WHISKY

(Written especially for The Times) A drayman rolled forth, from his dray to the street, A red-headed barrel, well bound and complete, And on it rid letters, like forked tongues of flame, Emblazoned the grade, number, quality, brand, Of this world renowned whisky from somebody's still, Who arrested the grain on the way to the mill.

So there stood the barrel delivered, but I could see that a shadow was hovering nigh— A sulphurous shadow, that grew as I gazed, To the form of Mephisto; though sorely amazed, I ventured to question this imp of the realm Where you is the pilot, with stum at the helm, And asked him politely his mission to name. And if he was licensed to retail the same. Identical barrel of whisky which he was fam'ly surveying with demon-ic glare.

"Oh, I never drink the stuff, he replied, "My partner's good morals are, trust, Mayhap, predestinate, you might wish to look At the invoice complete—I will read from this book. You will find that the barrel contains forty-two gallons of whisky galore."

And ere I could slip another word in, He checked off all gaily, his cargo of sin. "A barrel of headaches, of heart-aches, of woes; A barrel of blues, a barrel of blows; A barrel of tears from a world weary wile; A barrel of crime and a barrel of pain; A barrel of hopes ever blasted and vain; A barrel of falsehood, a barrel of lies, That fall from the men's lips like rain; A barrel of poison, of this nearly full; That shatters the nerves, makes the intellect dull; A barrel of poverty, ruin and blight; A barrel of terrors that grow in the night; A barrel of hunger, a barrel of groans; A barrel of orphans' most piteous moans; A barrel of serpents that hiss as they pass; From the head on the liquor that flows in the glass; My barrel! My treasure! I bid thee farewell— Thou'lt soon the foul seed that is reaped down in hell!"

THE BOOZERS

You're welcome at the Boozers' bazaar. While you have got a roll, They'll say you are a guiding star, A genial guest, a genial soul. The low-browed bloke who sells the side, Will call you "Gag" or "Jed," While you have liver in your d-d; To buy his baneful bide; And all the jolly hang-around, Will praise your wit and sense, While merrily the Lager beer Goes round at your expense.

They'll greet with wide and joyful grin, The stink of your jokes, While you have slide to buy the gin, Or fix the crowd with amuse, That when your slide was lost And you all busted are, There falls a blinding knockout frost, And when you fix your thirsty gaze Upon that bottled shaft, The gent who smiled in other days Grows sorely "chase yourself!"

The boozers eye you with disdain, Who once said you were it, And grumble that you cast them pain, When you display your wit, The day when you were going strong No one can now recall, And if you hang around too long They'll crowd you to the wall, Good fellows go the same old gait, The easy high rolling chumps And they will meet the same old fate, And bump the same old bumps, James Maden

ANGELIC CHURCH FOR PROHIBITION

Rev. Canon Howcroft, rector of St. Paul's Anglican parish in Edmonton informs the Bulletin that the archdeaconry of Edmonton has pledged itself to support the liquor act at the forthcoming plebiscite.

"I noticed in the Edmonton Journal of July 12," he says, "an editorial which seemed to question the favorable attitude of the Anglican church in this province to the proposed Alberta liquor act. The editorial begins with the question, 'Has the Anglican church in Alberta approved of the Alberta liquor act?' In answer to this question, I am glad to say that at a meeting of the archdeaconry of Edmonton, held in the Holy Trinity school room on Tuesday, June 1, 1915, a report was read on prohibition, and the following resolution was passed without a dissenting voice: 'Resolved that in the opinion of the members of the archdeaconry of Edmonton, everything we can do in the interests of temperance should be done, and that we thoroughly endorse the proposed prohibition act (the Alberta Liquor act) believing it to be a step in the right direction, and that we pledge ourselves to do all we can to make it a success.' In explanation, I may say that the archdeaconry of Edmonton is in communication with the whole diocese of Edmonton, and with one exception all the clergy of the diocese were present at the above meeting."—Bulletin.

PROTECTING THE PEOPLE

To the Editor:

In 1910 Governor Stubbins delivered an address in Chicago in which he spoke in part as follows: "Prohibition in Kansas is not the result of atmospheric conditions. Reason was at the bottom of it all. It was not brought about by fanaticism, but by sane, sober, patriotic folks who had longer heads than the average American people had at that time. It was not a new idea. It was as old as the abuse of liquor. Eleven hundred years before Christ an Emperor of China decreed that all the grape vines be pulled up by the roots and burned to ashes. China has been a sober nation ever since. Centuries before Christ Lycurgus, the great law giver of his people, did precisely the same thing in Greece. The Carthaginians prohibited drinking in the army 300 years before the Christian era. Draco, in his laws, made drunkenness a capital offence. All through history you will find it and wherever it was observed the nations became grater and more virtuous."

"Prohibition is the doctrine of self defence. Kansas is simply protecting its people from the arch enemy of human happiness. Kansas hopes are protected from an infinitely worse enemy to society than the liquor. Prohibition has simply muzzled a brute that is ten times more vicious than a mad dog. It has merely cut out a useless expense that was more burdensome than all of the state and county taxes combined." When the people of Canada vote up to the terrible truth of that last sentence.

Martin Skewton, living five miles west of Camrose, failed to see why he should pay school taxes and threatened to shoot the constable who took possession of his horse and cart. He afterwards went to Camrose and took the animals out of the livery barn, also threatened to shoot the keeper if he interfered. He was arrested by the Mounted Police and after a hearing was committed for trial until upon payment of $500 taxes and furnishing bail for $1,000, he was allowed his liberty. He was also fined $5 and costs for carrying concealed weapons.

WHAT CANADA IS DOING

Perhaps no more important step has been taken by the Canadian government in connection with the war, than the organization of Canadian industries for the manufacture of shells. This step was taken months ago, but public interest in the Dominion has been concentrated upon the question of expelling the enemy to which the industrial resources of Canada are being used, for this purpose, and the extent to which a vast industry is possible.

The volume of business presently being done has been outstripped by the General Alexander Bertram, in an address before the Canadian Manufacturers' Association at Toronto. His statement was a good one; indeed the results which he was able to announce came as a distinct and pleasant surprise to the majority of people in the Dominion. The result as given by General Bertram at Toronto was that 600,000 shells have been shipped from Canada, that orders have been placed for nine million shells and for very large quantities of cartridge cases, fuses, primers and fuses. With the exception of the Dominion arsenal there are no other establishments in the Dominion turning out the shell complete. Two hundred and forty seven factories in seventy-eight cities and towns of Canada are engaged in the production of shell parts. One hundred and thirty factories are engaged in the work of machining and assembling, and General Bertram expects that the daily output of shells now estimated at thirty thousand, will be increased to fifty thousand.

KIDNEY DISEASE WAS KILLING HIM

Until He Used "Fruit-a-lives"
The Great Kidney Remedy

ILLIENSVILLE, Ont., Aug. 26th, 1913.

"About two years ago, I found my health in a very bad state. My kidneys were not doing their work and I was all run down in condition. Having seen 'Fruit-a-lives' advertised, I decided to try them. Their action was mild, and the result all that could be expected.

My kidneys resumed their normal action after I had taken upwards of dozen boxes and I regained my old-time vitality. Today, I am well as ever."

R. A. KELLY.

THE LIQUOR ACT

In the name of the proposed prohibition bill upon which we will vote on July 21.

1. Purpose of the Act.—To prohibit the sale of intoxicating liquors within the province of Alberta for beverage purposes.

2. What the Act will do if passed.

(a) It will abolish all licensed hotels, clubs and wholesale stores, and thus do away with the treating system.

(b) It will provide for the sale of liquor for medicinal, mechanical, scientific and sacramental purposes through "vendors" who shall be government appointees.

(c) It will do away with the element of private gain and greed by giving the vendors a fixed salary with absolutely no profits or commissions.

(d) It will allow such persons as are properly registered in their particular professions, as druggists, physicians, etc., to obtain alcohol for strictly medicinal, mechanical or scientific purposes.

(e) It will allow a householder to keep one quart of spirits and two gallons of malt liquor in his own home for his private use provided it is not purchased within the province. It will prohibit keeping any liquor in hotels, clubs, offices, places of business, apartments, boarding houses, etc.

(f) It will impose a heavy fine for infractions of the Act.

3. What it will not do.—

(a) It will not stop the manufacture of liquor in the provinces, as this right is granted by Dominion Statute.

(b) It will not prevent the importation of liquor from outside the province, as this right is granted by Dominion Statute.

4. By the terms of the Direct Legislation Act, under which this referendum is being taken, a majority is necessary to make it law in the province. Any male British subject, either by birth or naturalization who is over 21 years of age, who has resided for a period of twelve months in the province, and for 3 months in the electoral constituency shall be entitled to a vote.

WETASKIWIN PEOPLE

PRIZE SIMPLE MIXTURE

Many in Wetaskiwin prize the simple mixture of bicarbonate of soda, glycerine, etc., known as Adler's. This remedy is the most THOROUGHLY tried cleaner ever sold, being even used successfully in appendicitis. ONE SPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE of constipation, sour or gassy stomach. ONE MINUTE after you take it the gases rumble and pass out. Adler's cannot gripe and the INSTANT action is surprising. T. F. Ball, druggist.

Entire Family Stricken With Cholera.

Youngest Child Died.

The chief symptoms of cholera are vomiting and purging, occur either simultaneously or alternately, and are usually sudden and very violent, and the matter ejected by the stomach has a bilious appearance and a nasty bitter taste. On the first symptom appearing Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry should be taken, and the trouble cured.

Mrs. E. Shale, 370 Logan Ave., Toronto, Ont., writes: "When I first arrived in Canada, nearly four years ago, my entire family was stricken with cholera, from which the youngest child died. Soon after a friend recommended Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, and acting on this advice I administered it to all who were suffering, with the most gratifying results. Since that first attack my children have been subject to stomach troubles, but on the first symptoms I resort to 'Dr. Fowler's,' and it always brings relief. I have immense faith in this medicine, and always keep a bottle on hand. Also I never fail to recommend it to anyone who is similarly troubled."

When you ask for "Dr. Fowler's" see that you get it.

It has been on the market for the past 70 years.

"There is nothing 'just as good.'"

CAMROSE

(From The Canadian)

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. U. P. Smith on Monday.

Mrs. G. Bayless, of Wetaskiwin, who has been visiting Mrs. D. M. Laren, left for her home this morning.

Miss Mackon of the post office staff left on Monday for a month's vacation, part of which will be spent at her home in Wetaskiwin.

In order that the school authorities may have a permanent continuing census of the children in the Camrose school district, an enumeration of the children will be made each year and a card record kept. By this means the school principals will know exactly the children to expect as beginners from term to term.

Mr. Herbert Smith, Lew Hutchinson and W. J. Hoover have swept things at the Calgary Fair.

Mr. Smith with his Leicester sheep won two championships, two reserve championships, eight first point eight seconds and five thirds. Mr. Hoover had no opposition and swept the list. Mr. Hutchinson could not be got over the telephone, but he was more successful than ever.

Mc. Elliott of Calgary, who got the contract for the rebuilding of the Camrose telephone lines preparatory to moving into the new telephone building, arrived in Camrose yesterday and got the work under way this morning. He will employ local men and will require about 25 for a period of about six weeks.

J. Harris received a colony of bees from M. Zimmerman of Bawlf this week, these being, so far as it is known, the first bees in town. Mr. Harris has had considerable experience with bees and has produced as much as 120 pounds of honey from a colony, although the average is from 60 to 70 pounds. Last year Mr. Zimmerman had 27 colonies that gave him 1400 pounds of honey. His apiculture has been increased to 52 hives this year.

Farley and Twomey have 45 acres of Freinde wheat, fully in head, on their farm nine miles south of Camrose. This field was sown on April 17 and commenced heading on June 25th.

It is none too early now to begin to boost Wetaskiwin's Fair in August. Let us make it the biggest and best ever by sending our choice vegetables, stock, etc., for exhibition.

ZION CHURCH

Next Sunday, July 18, there will be no service in the forenoon, instead the pastor will conduct German service in the evening at 7.45.

On the following Sunday, July 25, this congregation intends to celebrate its mission festival. Two services will be conducted, at 11 a.m. and 2.45 p.m., the respective speakers being Rev. K. Schmidt, of Chicago, and Rev. A. Gerken of Ledue. Special music will be provided by choir and children's chorus. A cordial invitation is extended to brethren and friends, especially of the neighboring congregations.

The cornerstone laying of the new Lutheran church at Hay Lake took place a few days ago.

CAMPBELL-McCALLUM NUPTIAL

On Wednesday morning, July 14th, the beautiful home of Mr. William McCallum was the scene of a very interesting occurrence, when, in the presence of a few relatives and intimate friends, his only daughter, Aimee Ferguson, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Robert Daniel Clunes Campbell of Ponoka.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. D. McLaughlin, of Calgary, a cousin of Mrs. McCallum.

Promptly at seven o'clock, to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, skillfully rendered by Mr. C. Hughes of Edmonton, the bride, carrying a beautiful bouquet of white roses, descended the stairway on the arm of her father, and took her place beside the groom, in the archway between the two parlors, beneath a large knot of white satin ribbon. Then followed the simple solemn ceremony which made these two man and wife, the father, in the absence of bridesmaids, standing by his daughter's side throughout the service. The formal record of marriage was witnessed by Miss Minnie Robertson, of Kaslo, B.C., and Mr. Clarence McDougall, of Van Ness Hill, Ontario, both cousins of the bride.

Following this the guests presented their good wishes and congratulations, and all proceeded to the dining room, where they partook of a sumptuous repast. The table was decorated in red and white, the flowers being carnations and roses, and a wide satin ribbon being tastefully used on the table, and above on the light from which the huge bow hung gracefully down side by side with the foliage of the hanging plant. Conspicuous on the table was the three story wedding cake in front of the radiant bride.

The bride's gown was of rich ivory satin with tulle and elaborate trimmings of fine all-over lace, with an artistic use of narrow white ribbon and seed pearls. A cascade of the satin hung gracefully down from the waist on either side of the train upon which was skillfully repeated the true lover's knot of the bridal veil. The wreath of orange blossoms crowned a very happy and exquisite bride.

One feature of the costume was a delicate Indian ivory fan suspended by a fine necklace of Jerusalem pearls and silver. The bride's mother wore a handsome gown of grey crepe de chene with touches of white lace and mauve silk, and presided over the festivities with her usual dignity and grace.

Thanks are due to Mrs. G. Baylis and Misses Helen Chandler and Florence Kelley, who were the charming assistants at the table.

The out-of-town guests were Dr. Campbell, M.P.P., of St. John's, Campbell, Bell and Master Donald Bell, of Ponoka; Mrs. Robertson, of Kaslo, B.C., Mr. and Miss Fraser, of Sedgewick, and Miss J. P. Robinson of Edmonton, while Wetaskiwin was represented by Mrs. Freeman Kelley, and Rev. and Mrs. Sheppard, the reverend gentleman being the one to claim the clergyman's right to salute the bride.

The happy couple left on the nine o'clock train for Banff and other points in the Rockies.

After August 1 they will be at home in Ponoka. The bride was dressed for travelling in a suit of dark blue corded silk, and white leghorn hat trimmed with pink roses.

Many beautiful presents attest the popularity of the bride, notably a cheque from Montreal and a silver service from Ottawa. Hosts of friends of both Mr. and Mrs. Campbell join in wishing them happiness and prosperity in their wedded life.
